

You're Not There

E Thought you'd be the one to save me

E Don't you see I'm hangin' in the air?

A I've forgotten nothin' that you gave me

B A E
But when I look, you're not there

A
I am caught between two worlds

E Neither one feels like home

A
Haven't felt home in a long time

B A E
Except the few times we're alone

Must I prove how much I need you?

Must I prolong this despair?

Too many people I can see through

But when I look, you're not
there

I'm no stranger to strange places

Know all the creatures of the night

I could drift off in this sea of faces

And lose the dreams that are in sight

A I hear the music I can't listen to

E
I see the eyes that only stare

A
I see the faces I can't speak to

B A E
But when I look, you're not
there

A E
Yeah. when I look, you're not there

© Peter Stone Brown